Ceremony of the Washing of the Feet

The Lord Jesus, after he had supped with his disciples and had washed their feet, said to them, "Do you know what I, your Lord and Master, have done to you? I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done."

Peace is my last gift to you, my own peace I now leave with You; peace which the world cannot give, I give to you.

I give you a new commandment: Love one another as I have loved you.

By this shall the world know that you are my disciples: That you have love for one another.

Oh Jerusalem Offering: Episcopalians continue to “pray for their sisters and brothers in the “Holy Land” and to support the Episcopal Church’s Good Friday Offering as “an opportunity to demonstrate solidarity with Anglicans and all Christians in that troubled region of the world.” For the past 80 years the Episcopal Church has taken up a Good Friday Offering to be sent to the Episcopal Church in Jerusalem and the Middle East. The offerings received on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday will be directed to this cause, which benefits hospitals, schools, and orphanages, which serve all people regardless of nationality or creed. Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem.

As often as you eat this bread and drink the cup,
you proclaim
the Lord’s death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11.26
