“Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus” (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18).

Rev. Chad Slater

Writing over one hundred years ago, Professor James Denney of Scotland called these three commands “the standing orders of the gospel.” They are “standing orders,” he explained, because they always apply to every Christian in every situation. I love looking at the original Greek text because it can give us a different perspective. In the original Greek text of this verse the imperatives are all in the present tense. You could translate it “continually rejoice, continually pray, and continually give thanks.”

While a nice thought, it’s somewhat difficult to do. Given the state of current world affairs, or even the trials of day to day life, it seems like an impossible challenge to be joyful all the time. Who has time to pray continually? Some days, at least for me, it’s a reach to find many things to be thankful for. I don’t believe we would have any problem if the text said,

“Rejoice sometimes; Pray occasionally; Give thanks when you feel like it.”

It’s the modifiers that trip us up: “Always... Continually...In all circumstances.”

This suggests that the real impact of the Gospel comes at surprising moments. After all, the message that Jesus brought to us, preached, taught, lived, and died for is not a message for our times of happiness and wholeness. Instead, the message of Christ seeks to lift up the lowly and mend the brokenness of our lives. The Gospel message comes to us when we don’t feel joy. It comes to us when we don’t want to pray. The Gospel message calls when we can’t think of a reason to be thankful. It is at these moments we discover our faith and the meaning behind the words of Christ when He said, “Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.” These simple “standing orders” from Paul’s letter to the church in Thessaloniki are rather like commands. They reveal the true life-changing power of Jesus Christ. When Christ enters a life—enters our hearts and minds—He changes it from the inside out so that we have both the power and the desire to rejoice, to pray, and give thanks even in the worst moments of life.

The key to maintaining a life filled with Christ is to constantly encounter Him. We can do this in many ways. When we come to church and receive the Holy Eucharist we can taste and see the presence of our Lord. When we come to God in prayer we can lift the burdens He is already familiar with up to Him. We have relationship with Christ when we seek to come into His presence. Christ never leaves us—never wanders off. We, however, have a tendency to do wander from Christ.

2017 is now upon us. For many of us 2016 was not a banner year—take your own personal pick of reasons. With a new year we have the opportunity for a new chance, a new lease on life. At our Ingathering Sunday this past autumn we collected cards that asked for commitments of more than money. The church asked for your commitments of time and talent. We promised to pray for the work of the church, dedicated our time to God’s service and worship, and offered back to the Almighty the gifts of talent He has richly bestowed upon us. No one is keeping score of these commitments but you and God. Use the commitments you have made on that card to deepen your relationship with God. Work diligently to fulfill these “standing orders” so that you can live into the richness of God’s mercy and love...for this is God’s for you in Christ Jesus.

May you have a happy and blessed New Year!
 Amen!

Christ Episcopal Church
Draft Vestry Minutes
December 7, 2016

Present: David Hardin, Linda Ammar, Cameron Clement, Marc Meachum, Rob Merritt, Dee Puckett, Teresa Paine, Patty Richardson, The Rev. Chad Slater, rector and Frank Dragotto, treasurer.

The December meeting of the Christ Episcopal Church vestry was called to order on December 7, 2016 by Senior Warden, David Hardin. Mr. Hardin declared a quorum.

Linda Ammar led the vestry in a short devotion. The minutes of the November Meeting were passed on a motion made by Marc Meachum and seconded by David Hardin. The treasurer's report was given by Frank Dragotto. The expense reports for October and November were tabled until a parish assistant is in place to put the reports in order.

The Senior Warden gave his end of the year report. He touched on the activities and projects done by the church this past year. The Junior Warden, Dee Puckett reported the S and R Refrigeration installed a new condensation pump on the furnace and repair some leaking pipes.

The commission reports are:

Communication: The commission is continuing to send out the monthly newsletter and is planning to start work on the updated website.

Evangelism: The Evangelism Commission will continue to advertise the church via Facebook.

Education: Volunteers are desperately need to sit in on the children's Sunday School class to adhere to "Safeguarding God's Children" suggestions.

Finance: The finance commission presented the 2017 Proposed Budget for Vestry approval. The deficit budget was approved for presentation to the Annual meeting on a motion by Patty Richardson and a second from Teresa Paine.

Outreach: The committee continues to be very active with the Food Pantry on the third Thursday of the month. Additional outreach projects include serving dinner at the Union Mission on the fourth Wednesday of the month and providing dinner for the Mercer County Fellowship Home. An ingathering of Christmas snacks and treats supplied an abundance of "goodies" to be taken to the Fellowship Home.

Parish Life: A champagne and cookie reception will be held after the 11:00 Christmas Eve service. The need to have a coffee machine for this event and for coffee hour was discussed. Marc Meachum and Frank Dragotto volunteered to purchase a coffee machine for the church.

Worship: There will be two Christmas Eve services at 4:30 pm and 11:00 pm. No service on Christmas Day.

Rector's Report: Father Chad continues to visit shut-ins but has had to limit his time for this due to not having a parish assistant. He has also interviewed candidates for the position of parish assistant.

New Business: David Hardin and Father Slater thanked the outgoing vestry members, Cameron Clement, Wanda Myers, and Patty Richardson for their service. The nominating committee reported that those running for vestry positions are: Kathy Burge, Suzanne Pulse, and Mary Catherine Williams. Delegates to the annual convention have not been decided upon, but will be presented at the annual meeting.

With there being no further business, Father Chad dismissed the meeting with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Patty Richardson, Acting Registrar

Evangelism Tip:

Do you know someone who grew up at Christ Church but does not attend now? Do you know anyone who had previously been a member, but for whatever reason no longer comes? It's not difficult to invite people to someplace they are already familiar with. Ask them to join you one Sunday, give Fr. Chad a call, or drop by the church sometime!

Congratulations new church officers!

Thanks to everyone who contributed to the hats, scarves and gloves drive that we had for the Food Pantry in November. There were not many items left. We probably will do this again for November Food Pantry 2017. As the winter sales start, you might buy some items that you can bring to the church and we can store them. And of course if you knit or crochet you can continue to do that.

*Thanks again,
Susanne Pulse and Mary Catherine Williams*

Miles of Pennies
By Mary Catherine Williams

What is the Miles of Pennies (M.O.P.) Grant? The Miles of Pennies Fund was established in 1988 on the 100th anniversary of The Church Periodical Club. The Miles of Pennies Fund Committee awarded its first grants in 1991. The maximum grant given by Miles of Pennies is $844.80 which represents one mile of pennies. The grants serve the needs of children from kindergarten through high school wherever there is a need.

A few months ago we placed a jar on the table in Hobson Library to collect money to send to CPC. We sent a $34.76 check to our Diocesan CPC chairman for the Miles of Pennies Grant. This was a good start. We didn't make the mile of pennies, but we did 217 feet 3 inches!

We hope to have some CPC coin boxes soon so you can take them home to put your coins in. Our next CPC Sunday will be October 8, 2017.

The Rainbow Recipe of the Month

From Virginia Hospitality cookbook (1975)
Cream of Peanut Soup

Ingredients:

- |                        |                    |
|------------------------|--------------------|
| 2 ribs celery, chopped | 1 c. milk          |
| 1/4 cup butter         | 1 c. light cream   |
| 1 small onion, chopped | 1 c. peanut butter |
| 2 tbsp. flour          | Salt and pepper    |
| 2 c. chicken broth     | paprika            |

Directions:

Brown celery and onions in butter. Add flour and chicken broth and bring to a boil. Add milk and cream. Strain. Add peanut butter and simmer for 5 minutes. Season to taste. Yields 6 servings or 8 cups.

House Blessings

A house blessing is an ancient tradition that can be found in Protestantism, Orthodox Christianity, and Roman Catholicism. These blessings are usually performed by a pastor or priest who sprinkles holy water as he or she walks through every room of the house, accompanied by the residents of the house, whilst praying for those who live there. House blessings date back to the early days of Christianity.

Traditionally, house blessings are done at the start of the New Year. If you are interested in having your home blessed for the New Year, please contact Fr. Chad. He will be happy to make arrangements during the first days of January to come and bless your home.

Office hours are 9-2 Monday through Thursday
